*Unique Offshore Calls Exclusive to Matson South Seas Cruises.

(1) RAROTONGA—Whether paddling your time and water as "left and right" or this paradise near Hawaii as a restaurant named here as your facilities, the island will, in effect, call to the ship. The Matson and Matson cruises off ships for approximately two hours each island visitation and continue very close. For travelers, may day arrive tomorrow, photograph the island and continue and take the legends that take take through Polynesian history.

(2) NASSAU (TONGA ISLANDS)—An old tradition of the South Pacific was raised when Matson began again began making an off-shore call of this tiny island the "Tongatapu" (Nassau) that is divided in a small province, an open voyage, guided by the most-famous portage and ancient tradition to visit from the Marquesas and Hawaii.

Sightseeing Ashore—A vast array of shore excursions is offered at each port of call. For complete description and prices, please refer to folder "Shore Excursions and Optional Tours."

ENCHANTMENT and ADVENTURE

That's the Promise of a Matson South Seas Cruise

You'll never forget your Matson voyage of discovery through the enchanting lands of the South Seas. And now Matson's new cruise Itinerary offers the most exclusive entries into the fabled isles of Polynesia and the lands "Down Under." For only Matson takes you to Ross Bay, Tahiti, Rarotonga, Newsome, Fiji, Pago Pago, Nassau, and Hawaii, plus New Zealand and Australia. Where else in the world can you find such peaceful seas to cruise . . . such lovely islands to visit . . . such friendly people to meet? Today this wondrous world is yours to discover aboard the Matsona or Moerua—ultra-modern cruise liners adding further brightness to the dreams of the Pacific . . . perpetuating Matson's 80-year tradition of luxury service to adventurers of this friendly sea.

Cruise Variations—A special variation in Itinerary combining air service allows for a 4- or 5-day New Zealand tour for those desiring extra time without leaving Australia. Passengers fly from Auckland to Sydney to join the cruise.

Many other Air and Sea combinations allow a number of ways to vary an Itinerary from almost any of these ports to anywhere in the Pacific or Around the World. These special itineraries or stopovers for longer stays at any port can easily be arranged by your travel agent.

With sitting rooms rising from a tropical garden and soft shades lightly above, the Information Club is a romantic back ground for dancing and entertainment.

Reduced fare cruises—35% reduction from one-way fares applies to roundtrip cruises.
